7. Subject to Section 8 (M&A) below, this OpenData ELA covers usage of the Veeva OpenData products described above by: Grünenthal and affiliates in the countries outlined in Section 4 above ("Authorized Units and Divisions") for commercial and medical engagement purposes only.

Other Affiliates, divisions or business units may access and use Veeva OpenData products limited solely to providing services for the benefit of the Authorized Units and Divisions. For the avoidance of doubt, other than the Authorized Units and Divisions as defined herein, this OpenData ELA does not cover usage of the Veeva OpenData products by or on behalf of any other Customer department, business unit or division. For the sake of clarity, data subscribed through this Order Form is not intended to be loaded by Customer in applications used for research and clinical development. Such use is not warranted by Veeva and Veeva assumes no liability for the use of the subscribed data for this purpose.

8. M&A Changes: In the event Customer acquires, is acquired by or merges with another entity with annual revenue greater than $500 Million, Veeva OpenData shall not be accessed or used by the other entity or used for the legacy operations of the other entity pursuant to this Order Form until Customer and Veeva have mutually agreed to an appropriate adjustment to subscription fees. Acquired entities with spend of less than the $500 Million will be covered by the subscription fees set forth in this Order Form.

Both parties agree that the pricing contained herein will be treated as Veeva Confidential Information.

CPI Adjustment: For any renewal of this Order Form, or any new or add-on orders, with a start date on or after April 1, the fees set forth in this Order Form will be increased annually by the lesser of (i) four percent (4%) or (ii) the Consumer Price Index (All Urban Consumer, US City Average, All Items Index) published by the U.S. Bureau of Labor and Statistics for the month of August of the calendar year prior to the applicable start date.
